WESTMAN CHAPTER

Nomination Form for

CHAMPION OF ABORIGINAL EMPLOYMENT AWARD

IANE is a non-political, non-profit, nonsectarian, volunteer organization promoting the employment of Aboriginal people by networking and sharing information on best employment practices. One of IANE's objectives is to recognize employers and individuals demonstrating successful employment initiatives supporting the hiring, training, retention and advancement of Aboriginal people.

The IANE Westman Chapter invites nominations for a Champion of Aboriginal Employment to be recognized at IANE's Champion Luncheon on April 12, 2017 (11:30 a.m.) at the Victoria Inn Imperial Ballroom, Brandon. Champions are recognized for their commitment, leadership and innovation in promoting the employment of Aboriginal people.

Description of type of nominees:

Please note that nominees do not have to be Aboriginal to be nominated in the area of Business and/or Individual, as we highlight nominees for their roles in providing employment opportunities to the Aboriginal population. However, for the award of Entrepreneur, the committee would like to highlight an Aboriginal nominee for their role in business development from an Aboriginal member of the community.

Business - Awarded to a business having a record of hiring, empowering and supporting Aboriginal employees.

Individual - Awarded to an individual who has been instrumental in education, training and/or employment initiatives promoting Aboriginal employment.

Entrepreneur - Awarded to an Aboriginal person who has started a business and has been successful and inspired others from their work.

To submit a nomination, complete the attached form, and include a description of the nominee's qualities.
